Aff.Sub.	Accounting	- $214,899.55 ?	The following issues from the last hearing remain:
✓ Verified	Beginning POH	- $182,358.84
✓ Inventory	Ending POH	- $178,789.44 ? ($56,017.94 or $47,717.24 is cash?)	1. Schedule C, Disbursements does not include any entry for the $122,771.50 cash withdrawal dated 7/1/2010 which is indicated on the Bank of the West statement filed 6/24/2011. The schedule of disbursements should reflect the payment of this sum, which appears to be for purchase of a condominium for the Conservatee per Court authorization on 7/1/2010. Further, the Summary of Account is also inaccurate as it does not list this $122,771.50 disbursement. (Note: First Account pleadings do not contain any narrative information regarding this condominium purchase for the Conservatee, nor the approved rental agreement and the $850.00 rent the Court authorized to be charged; information has been obtained from previous pleadings filed with the Court.)
PTC	Conservator	- not addressed
Not.Cred. Need correct amount of cash on hand at the end of the account period.
✓ Notice of Hrg	Bond	- $61,000.00 (sufficient)
✓ Aff.Mail W /	Petitioner prays for an Order:		3. Schedule A, Receipts contains entry dated 1/19/2011 indicating an SSI check in the amount of $13,280.00 was received. This amount appears to be incorrect, as the SSI check amounts in the receipts schedule are typically for $1,328.00 . Therefore, the total amount of receipts indicated in Schedule A, Receipts is incorrect (should be $20,588.71) and the accounting does not balance. ~Please see additional page~

4. Petition requests a flat fee of $1,328.00, which is the amount of the Conservatee's monthly disability benefits, be allowed to be paid monthly to the Conservator for room and board and food, and therefore Petitioner "will not have to charge 25% of all expenses and will make the accounting process much easier." Petition does not explain this statement regarding charging 25% of expenses to the Conservatee, and it is unclear from the Petition whether the Conservatee resides with other household members requiring all expenses to be apportioned at 25% among them. (Conservatee is charged 25% of expenses for cable, cell phone, utilities, pool service, pest control, homeowner's insurance, gardening, electricity, etc.)
5. Schedule A, Receipts contains entries dated 10/4/2010 and 10/28/2010 for "deposit of rent check for condo" in the amount of $850.00 each, and Schedule C Disbursements shows a deposit refund of $300.00 was made on 12/13/2010 to the renter of the condominium. There are no prior entries for rent received (condominium was purchased in July 2010) nor any subsequent entries for receipt of rent for the condominium during this account period. Petition does not mention the Conservatee's condominium nor explain its current status. Court may require information as to the current rental status of the condominium and as to the lack of monthly rent receipts from November 2010 to the ending date of this account of 3/31/2011. Schedule C Disbursements shows the Conservatee pays $199.00 in monthly association dues (totaling $1,393.00 during this account period), $586.00 in condominium insurance, and $1,008.09 in property taxes, which now may be considered liabilities to the Conservatorship estate given that the property is not earning rental income; additionally, Conservatee expended $800.00 on 12/22/2010 for condominium property management.
6. Schedule C Disbursements includes the following expenditures for which the Court may require explanation, justification, and further information:
 - $200.00 cash withdrawal dated 10/12/2010 for which no purpose is identified;
 - $1,116.54 dated 2/23/2010 for which no payee or purpose is identified;
 - $5,982.02 in payments to GMAC Mortgage; Petition does not state whether these mortgage payments are for the condominium which Conservatee just purchased or for the Conservator's own mortgage, and if for the latter, whether Conservatee will have partial ownership in Conservator's residence for making a portion of such mortgage payments.
 - $1,542.00 in payments to Toyota with the explanation of "25% of monthly transportation costs." It is unclear whether this refers to fuel expenses, or to purchase of a vehicle, and if for the latter, whether Conservatee has partial ownership in the vehicle for making such payments (Schedule E, Property on Hand does not list any interest in a vehicle as an asset of the Conservatorship);
 - $6,187.04 in Costco expenses that are not apportioned at 25%; descriptions state food and supplies, sometimes designated "for Conservatee" and sometimes without such designation;
 - $471.43 to Travelers Insurance for "home" - 25% of monthly charge (payments made to DiBudio & Defendis Insurance are designated as for the condominium);
 - $105.00 in overdraft bank charges; it appears the Conservatee has paid these charges when he is not the person responsible for managing his money.
7. Petition does not address whether the Conservator is waiving commissions.

~Please see additional page~

Note: Declaration of Attorney Nancy J. LeVan in Support of Request for Attorney Fees filed on 6/24/2011 includes a fee itemization identified as Statement Date 6/24/2011 totaling fees of $4,690.00, which contains entries dated 7/30/2011, 8/2/2010 and 8/27/2010 for fees totaling $440.00 that are identical in the fees charged and in the descriptions of services to the entries contained on Attorney LeVan's itemization identified as Statement Date 8/27/2010 submitted in support of Attorney LeVan's Petition for Approval of Rental Agreement filed 9/8/2010; attorney fees of $2,700.00 were granted to Attorney LeVan on 10/26/2010 in that matter covering these duplicate itemizations such that it appears these fees of $440.00 have already been paid. Therefore, the total of the itemized fees for this account period should be $4,250.00, and since Attorney LeVan requests due to the limited funds of the Conservatorship that she be paid only $4,000.00 as compensation for her legal services, no deduction is necessary from the amount of attorney fees requested by Attorney LeVan for overpayment due to the duplicate entries.

Note: The Petition and the Declaration of Attorney Nancy J. LeVan in Support of Request for Attorney Fees filed on 6/24/2011 do not specifically request reimbursement of costs advanced for the filing fee of $395.00; however, it appears this request is being made, as the amount of $4,395.00 for legal services and costs is included in the proposed order.

Beneficiary age: 8 years.		COMERICA BANK AND TRUST, Trustee, is petitioner. Petitioner states the Special Needs Trust was created by this court on 4/28/2011. Hailie L. Whitmire, age 8, is the beneficiary of the trust. Hailie was born with spina bifida, hydrocephalus and neurogenic bladder. Hailie lives with her parents Shelly Whitmire and Jim Whitmire and one sibling, Jermaine, age 17. Petitioner states since Hailie's birth, her mother has not been able to work, in that she has been required to be with Hailie at all times. Hailie's mother's inability to seek employment has put a financial strain on the family. Further, Hailie's father works on and off, and when he works, his gross income is $1,200 per month. Petitioner, if at all possible, wants Hailie's mother to be able to stay home and provide the needed care for Hailie. However, the financial strain is becoming too much and Hailie's mother may be forced to seek employment which would not enable her to be Hailie's primary caretaker. As such, in an effort to allow Hailie's mother to continue to be able to stay home and remain the primary caretaker for Hailie, Petitioner requests that the Court authorize Petitioner to pay Hailie's mother a monthly salary of $2,000.00 from the Trust. Petitioner submits that Hailie is the type of child that would benefit greatly from her mother's continued presence. As a matter of fact, Hailie's mother is currently Hailie's in home support services (IHSS) provider and receives the sum of $1,600.00 per month from the state for providing in home support services for Hailie. The problem is that this falls short of enabling the Whitmires to support their family, including Hailie. Petitioner prays for an Order: 1. That Petitioner be authorized to pay Hailie's mother, Shelly Whitmire, gross income in the amount of $2,000.00 per month, or in the alternative, a certain amount of gross income per month it deems appropriate.	NEEDS/PROBLEMS/COMMENTS: Note Upcoming Hearing: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> 5/14/2012 status hearing for the filing of the first account. 1. Also presented was a handwritten note by the decedent declaring that the deed she signed giving joint tenancy to Demetria and Jose Mijangos was a product of fraud and undue influence. The note further completely disinherits the Mijangos. Ms. Villareal states that the Court would not accept these documents during the 08/30/11 hearing, but states that these documents should be accepted by the Court as the decedent's last Will. She has successfully completed a 9-month program at Pathways to Recovery, has taken parenting, anger management, job readiness, and relapse prevention programs, and has attended all group meetings, counseling/therapy sessions and weekly N.A./A.A. groups – she still attends N.A. meetings even though she has completed the program. File 9 - Ramirez

Objection to Petition for Termination*, filed 8/19/11 by current guardian Ceclia Ramirez, states:

Ms. Ramirez was provided improper Notice of the Petition, but that despite this, she waives her notice. Ms. Ramirez requests that the Court deny Mother's Petition and requests that Mother have only increased visitation with Brianna so that the Court can continue to monitor the progress in the relationship between mother and minor, and requests a graduated visitation plan over a period of 6 months. This way the minor can begin to grasp the concept of who her mother is. Ms. Ramirez states she still has concerns about Mother's ability to parent the minor.

Court Investigator Jo Ann Morris' report, filed 8/17/11.

Court Investigator Jo Ann Morris' supplemental report, filed 10/14/11.
